

NATHANS ATTACKS FIXING OF PRICES BY DAIRY LEAGUE

Action Not in Accordance With Agreement, Says Secretary of Milk Conference Board.

Bankers in the dairy farms districts to-day received copies of a letter in which I. Elkin Nathans, Secretary of the Milk Conference Board, attacks price fixing methods of the Dairymen's League.

In his communication, addressed to R. D. Cooper, President of the league, Mr. Nathans charges that the league is fixing milk prices arbitrarily, without negotiation, provided for in the 1919 settlement agreement. The December price was arbitrarily fixed. Mr. Nathans says, but as it is lower than the November price, the distributors voted to accept it without controversy.

This policy has been pursued by the league, according to the letter, for the last three months, and instances are cited in which the Conference Board directors tried to negotiate with the league, but learned the prices distributors were expected to pay from arbitrary announcements by the league.

Mr. Nathans also protests against the co-operative sales schemes of the league, distributing dairy products of its members under a pooling agreement in competition with distributors obliged to pay a dictated basic price. In a circular sent out Oct. 25 the league announced, according to Mr. Nathans, that the price to be allowed members was $1 per 100 pounds of milk, although the distributors were compelled to pay $1.65.

This he declared to be unfair practice, because there is no reason why members of the Conference Board should pay higher prices for raw products than the farmers' own organization is able to return them.
